

EFFICIENCY DECORATION

Could start working for the Efficiency Decoration only after 14 years of age.

REQUIREMENTS

- (a) Complete activity area 'A' (Commitment), 'C' (Scout Craft), and 'F' (Adventure) of Chief Commissioner's Award.
- (b) Obtain the Venturer Badge
- (c) Make the Efficiency Decoration out of leather thongs
This Should be done in the presence and under the examination of the A.D.C. (Training). If A.D.C. (Training) is not available a Wood Badge qualified A.D.C. or a Wood Badge qualified very senior Scout Leader specially appointed by the District Commissioner.
(It is better if the examiner is a member of the National Training Team)

AIRMAN'S BADGE – for Air Scouts

Should start working for the Airman's Badge only after 14 years of age.

REQUIREMENTS

- (a) Complete activity area 'A' (Commitment), 'C' (Scout Craft), and 'F' (Adventure) of Chief Commissioners Award.
- (b) Obtain the Venture Badge.
- (c) Obtain two Proficiency Badges as follows;
 - (i) Either Air Mechanic or Air Navigator from Airman Group.
and

- (ii) One of the following Badges
Glider Pilot, Hiker, Meteorologist, Naturalist and Astronomer.

SEAMAN'S BADGE – for Sea Scouts

Should start working for the Seaman's Badge only after 14 years of age.

REQUIREMENTS

- (a) Complete activity area 'A' (Commitment), 'C' (Scout Craft), and 'F' (Adventure) of Chief Commissioner's Award.
- (b) Obtain the Venturer Badge.
- (c) Obtain two Proficiency Badges as follows:
 - I. Either Boatswain or Helmsman from Seaman Group and
 - II. One of the following Badges.
Master Canoeist, Fisherman, Meteorologist, Naturalist and Astronomer

Wearing of Efficiency Decoration / Airman's Badge / Seaman's Badge

- (a) The Efficiency Decoration is worn round the right arm at the shoulder in place of the District Commissioner's Cord.
- (b) Airman's Badge/ Seaman's Badge is worn on the right arm sleeve below the Ambulance Badge and above the other badges.